STORY TIME · KIBBUD AV VA'EM

Mendy's Cup of Water

Mendy was building a tall tower of blocks. Then he heard the front door open. Abba was home from work! Mendy stood up right away. "Hi, Abba!" he said with a big smile.

Abba sat down in his big chair. He looked tired. Mendy had an idea. He went to the kitchen and filled a cup with cold water. He walked slowly so it would not spill. "Here, Abba," said Mendy. He brought Abba his slippers, too.

Just then, Mommy called, "Mendy, please come set the table." Mendy wanted to finish his tower. But he called, "Coming, Mommy!" and went the first time. He put out the plates, cups and forks.

At supper, Abba smiled at Mendy. "You stood up for me, you brought me water, and you listened the first time. That is kibbud av va'em!"

Mendy felt warm and happy inside. Hashem was happy, too!
