Week 3

אֱמֶת

Emes – Always Telling the Truth

Emes means I always tell the truth,
even when it is hard!

I can...

- ♡ tell the truth even when it's hard
- ☆ say "I did it"
- ♡ keep my promise

STORY TIME · EMES

Ari and the Flowerpot

Ari was playing ball in the yard. He kicked the ball very hard. Bang! The ball hit Abba's flowerpot, and the pot cracked. Dirt spilled all over the steps.

Ari looked around. Nobody saw. "Maybe I can just go inside," he thought.

Then Ari remembered what his Rebbi taught: Hashem loves emes. We always tell the truth, even when it is hard.

Ari walked inside to Abba. "Abba, I did it. My ball broke your flowerpot. I am sorry."

Abba smiled a big smile. "Ari, thank you for telling me the truth. That was not easy. I am so proud of you!"

"Let's fix it together," said Abba. Ari and Abba got a new pot. They filled it with dirt and planted the flowers again.

Ari made a promise: "Next time I will play ball far away from the flowers." And Ari kept his promise!

Think and Write

1. What happened when Ari kicked his ball?

2. What did Ari say to Abba?

3. How did Abba feel when Ari told the truth?
