An Overview of Ololo Safari Lodge & Farm in Kenya

Ololo Safari Lodge and Farm is a secluded luxury lodge surrounded by established gardens overlooking the Nairobi National Park. Ololo's accommodation includes private tented cottages, elegant suites in the historic main house, rooms in the original stables opening on to sunny terraces and comfortable family cottages surrounded by expansive gardens. All the rooms feature eclectic furnishings and handmade furniture created by Ololo's talented carpenters.

We also operate the 'Ololo Farm' which is an organic certified farming entity, run in conjunction with the Lodge. The Ololo Farm produces the freshest fruit, vegetables, milk, eggs and meat for our restaurant, 'The Kitchen at Ololo'. We make yoghurt and ice cream with pasteurised milk from our cows. Eggs, mushrooms, chicken and duck meat from the farm are also sold commercially into the Nairobi market. Guests are encouraged to visit the vegetable gardens, mushroom house, chicken and duck runs and even to help milk our cows, to learn about and appreciate Ololo's 'Paddock to Plate' philosophy.

Ololo guests can enjoy game drives in the Nairobi National Park in our safari vehicles with experienced guides. The park was gifted to Kenya by the local Maasai people in 1946 and is renowned for its population of white and black rhino, lions, zebra, leopards, cheetah, giraffe, hippos, crocodile, warthogs and many antelope species. Ololo Safari Lodge has adopted the majestic eland, the largest antelope, for its logo. The park is also home to 430 species of birdlife, and many examples can be spotted around the Ololo gardens. Our unique setting, nestled on the park's southern river border, provides access to an array of wildlife on our doorstep, which makes Ololo a special place to stay.
