Livingstone County Court
June 8th 1864.

On motion of M. F. Dunn and it appearing to the Satisfaction of the Court that he together with R. S. Boyd and A. J. Fleming his Securties executed a bond on the 2nd day of March 1863. to the Commonwealth of Kentucky for the Sum of Seven Hundred and Fifty Two 25/100 Dollars. being the purchase money for a Negro named John. Sold as a Runaway Slave by virtue of an order of the Livingstone County Court. And it further appearing to the Satisfactoie of the Court that said Negro was at the time of said sale laboring under an incurable disease of which he died. and the Sailor Clerk Sheriff and taker up of said Slave having been paid their fees. in full It is ordered that said bond be Cancelled and held for nought; upon the execution of a bond conditioned according to Law. by said M. F. Dunn with approved Security. And thereupon said M. F. Dunn together with R. S. Boyd his Surety executed and acknowledged a Covenant to and with the Commonwealth of Kentucky. Conditioned according to Law. which was approved by the Court.

A Copy att

James W. Cade
Clerk

Livingston Co.

Order of Court
Cancelling Bond
for Running Stud