Fr Colin Patey

speak on

The Dream of Gerontius: how might Newman's poem inform our November prayers for the Holy Souls?

at Holy Name Church Hall, Towers Avenue, Jesmond, NE2 3JX
on Tuesday 10 November at 7.30pm

"We shall be like him, because we shall see him as he really is" (1 John 3:2). A timely reflection from Scripture and Newman's great poem. Timely, too, a couple of days after the Glasshouse* present Elgar's great oratorio based on the poem.

Father Colin Patey was ordained at Durham Cathedral and served for 20 years as an Anglican curate in Boldon Colliery and Weymouth, as Vicar at Grimethorpe and as a hospital chaplain in Leicestershire. He was ordained as a Catholic priest of the Nottingham Diocese in 1998. He served as a prison chaplain for 2 years and as Parish Priest in Coalville and Ashby de la Zouche, Leicestershire. He is now retired but very active as a supply priest and leading occasional retreats. As a High Church Anglican, Fr. Colin was inspired by Newman, Pusey and Keble, and as he approached the Catholic Church, Newman's journey became an even greater inspiration for him.
