Good day, parents

Please take note of the general information, as well as the schedule for the upcoming ADA competition.

This is the qualifying event for dancers who wish to represent South Africa at the American Dance Awards Final in Boston in 2027, making it an especially exciting opportunity for our dancers.

3. GENERAL RULES

All judges' decisions are final.

Sections cannot be re-danced due to late arrivals. No re-dance is allowed in Championship & WTC Sections.

The organizers and officials do not hold themselves responsible for any injuries to any person or loss/damage to property during this event.

All dancers are required to wear their armbands for the full duration of the competition. If you lose it, you are required to buy a spectator's ticket to enter the hall.

There will be warm up sessions on the floor, time dependent.

There will be a designated warm-up area and a designated marshalling area. Please adhere to these areas.

Dancers are only permitted to take the floor from the marshalling area.

4. PRIZE GIVING

Please note that prize-giving will take place after the entire section has finished dancing.

All dancers are asked to remain at the venue until prize-giving has been completed, as they may receive a place or medal.

IMPORTANT*

All dancers are required to wear their IDS Competition Jacket over their dance outfit/costume at all times while at the competition. This ensures a neat and uniform appearance and helps to keep costumes clean.

Competition Jackets are compulsory during prize-giving.

Please make sure that your IDS Competition Jacket is brought to the competition.

5. COMPETITION PROGRAMME AND PREPARATION

The programme is intended as a guide only and is subject to change. Performance times are based on the number of entries and may also be affected by scratches or amendments made at the registration table.

All dancers must be ready to perform 90 minutes before their scheduled performance time and must report to the marshalling area when required.

Hair, costumes and make-up will remain the same as for previous competitions, unless otherwise communicated for specific items. Please note that ADA judges place a strong emphasis on showmanship, and in previous years we have received comments regarding hair and make-up.

Proper stage make-up must be worn, and hair must be neatly and securely styled. False eyelashes are mandatory.
