From the Desk of the Apostle by Apostle Michael L. Collins

Beloved Congregation,

Grace and peace to you in the mighty name of our King, Christ Yeshua.

Welcome to the month of July, the seventh month of the year. In Scripture, the number seven carries deep spiritual meaning. It speaks of completion, perfection, rest, holiness, and divine order. From the seven days of creation to the sevenfold work of God, the number seven reminds us that the Lord finishes what He begins, and it is excellent and marvelous.

As we enter this seventh month, we are encouraged by the truth that God is a God of completion. Whatever has been delayed, unsettled, or left unfinished in your life is not beyond His power to bring into divine alignment. Let this be a season of trusting God for the fulfillment of His promises, the restoration of peace, and a fresh outpouring of His grace.

This is also an opportunity to reflect on the gift of God's rest. After the work of creation, God sanctified the seventh day as a day of rest, reminding us that true victory is found not in striving, but in abiding in Him. As we place our confidence in His faithfulness, we discover the peace that comes from surrendering every burden into His hands.

The number seven also reminds us of God's call to holiness and consecration. May this month be a time of renewed commitment to His will as we walk in purity, obedience, and steadfast faith.

I encourage every member of KDC to devote this month to prayer, thanksgiving, and expectant faith. Believe God for completion in your family, advancement in your calling, healing in your body, restoration in your relationships, and breakthroughs in every area of need.

May July be a season of divine completion, supernatural rest, and fresh spiritual order for each of us. May the Lord bless you and keep you. May His favor rest upon you, and may His peace guard your hearts and minds as you continue to walk faithfully with Him.

With love and Apostolic Blessing...MLC

The Prophetic Decree of July 2026 #TheWorshippersAreHere by Lady Collins

We declare it now: this is a Spirit led month. Every hour, every assignment, and every breath will be governed by the Spirit, not the flesh. This is a no flesh zone. What the flesh cannot accomplish, we will not attempt. What only the Spirit can birth, we will contend for.

We decree clarity of thought. Confusion has no place among us. Every word we speak will be intentional, strategic, and aligned with the will of the Father. We will not speak carelessly. We will speak with purpose.

We decree articulacy of speech. The citizens of the Kingdom will rise and boldly proclaim the things of God with no stammering and no shrinking back. We will speak from revelation, not repetition. We proclaim the finished work. It is done. It is complete. We declare from a position of victory, not in pursuit of it.

Praise and worship are our watchwords this month. We will not worship quietly in a corner. We will become the fulfillment of the psalmist's declaration: "Let everything that has breath praise the Lord." Every breath will become a sound. Every sound will become an offering. Let all creation lean in and listen.

Joy is our posture. It is not a mood but a stance. It is not merely a feeling but a fortress. The joy of the Lord is our strength. In that strength, we will not grow weary in well doing. We are steadfast. We are unmovable. We will finish every assignment the Father has placed before us.

We decree unhindered, unbroken, intimate communion with the Father. From that place of communion, our praise will rise beyond the ordinary. It will be revolutionary.

A worship movement is arising. It is not confined to a room or limited to a service. It is flowing into streets, nations, and generations. Transformation is coming. Regeneration is coming. #TheWorshippersAreHere

The Leaders Point

Stay Plugged into the Source by Evangelist Teresa Colbert

We live in a world where electricity is the primary source of power for almost everything we use each day. Every device and appliance was created with a specific purpose. In order to function properly, each one must remain plugged into its power source. The same is true for us. We, too, were created for a purpose, not simply to exist, but to accomplish the greater works God has ordained for our lives.

Our Heavenly Father took time to fashion us in His likeness. We were designed to function according to the calling He placed upon our lives. Even before we were formed in our mother's womb, God had a divine plan for each of us. Yet sin brought darkness into the world, making it necessary for us to reconnect with the true Source of life. Through Jesus Christ, an invitation has gone out to all people to be plugged into that Source. Those who accept His invitation receive His marvelous light, while those who reject Him remain in darkness. Spiritually, we cannot function apart from the Source.

We depend greatly on electricity because it makes life easier and enables us to accomplish many daily tasks. But what about our spiritual lives? In order to walk according to God's divine plan for our lives, we must receive the power that comes only through a relationship with the Father. We must trust Him with our whole hearts and depend on Him as the source of everything we need. As Kingdom citizens, we must remain plugged into the Source. The Father has poured out His Spirit upon all who will receive Him and has given us His Word to guide us and teach us how to remain connected to our power source.

We do this by:

- Meditating on His Word, day and night and hiding it in our hearts so that we will not sin against Him (Psalm 119:11).
- Remaining consistent in our prayer lives, "Praying without ceasing" (1 Thessalonians 5:17).
- Rejecting empty religion and cultivating a genuine relationship with the Father.
- Continually desiring a deeper revelation and greater knowledge of Him.

When we remain plugged into the Source, we never have to worry about a backup plan. We serve the All-Sufficient One who is able to do all things and never fails. Because His Spirit dwells within us, we have the power to go forth and accomplish the greater works He has prepared for us. Philippians 4:13 reminds us, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." Acknowledging God as our Source means recognizing Him as the ultimate provider of our life, strength, wisdom, and every resource we need. But acknowledging Him is only the beginning; we must also receive and remain connected to Him.

When we accept Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior, His power, authority, strength, and victory become our inheritance. The Holy Spirit is the seal and deposit guaranteeing that we belong to Christ and are citizens of His Kingdom. Through His dunamis power, we are empowered to live according to our God-given purpose for His glory and honor.

As vessels surrendered to God's will, His dunamis power working through us reveals His nature to humanity and proclaims the Gospel of Jesus Christ to a lost and dying world.

"For Yours is the kingdom and the power (dunamis) and the glory forever. Amen." Matthew 6:13

The Future...What's Going On?

Make This Summer Count by Sister Tee Brown

Summer break is finally here! It's a season to relax, enjoy time with family and friends, travel, and take a break from the busy school schedule. While it's important to rest and have fun, don't let your summer become a break from God.

Summer is the perfect time to grow spiritually. Just as athletes continue training during the off-season, followers of Christ continue growing even when life slows down. Use this time to strengthen your relationship with God by spending time in prayer, reading your Bible, worshipping, and serving others.

Challenge yourself this summer to spend a few minutes each day with God. Read a chapter of the Bible, memorize a Scripture each week, keep a prayer journal, or invite a friend to church or youth group. Small, consistent steps can lead to tremendous spiritual growth.

Remember, your identity is not found in social media, popularity, or what others think about you. Your identity is found in Christ. Wherever your summer takes you, let your life reflect His love, kindness, and truth.

Have an amazing summer, and remember: wherever you go, take Jesus with you

"Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, and in purity." 1 Timothy 4:12!
