

THE RIGHT TRIP FOR THE RIGHT TRAVELER

We start with you — not with a brochure.

Two travelers can visit the same destination and need completely different vacations. That is why we listen first.

WE ASK THE RIGHT QUESTIONS

What pace feels comfortable? What matters most? What do you want to avoid? What is worth spending more on - and what is not?

WE MATCH THE DETAILS

Destination, hotel style, transportation, activities, timing, budget, and travel personality all need to work together.

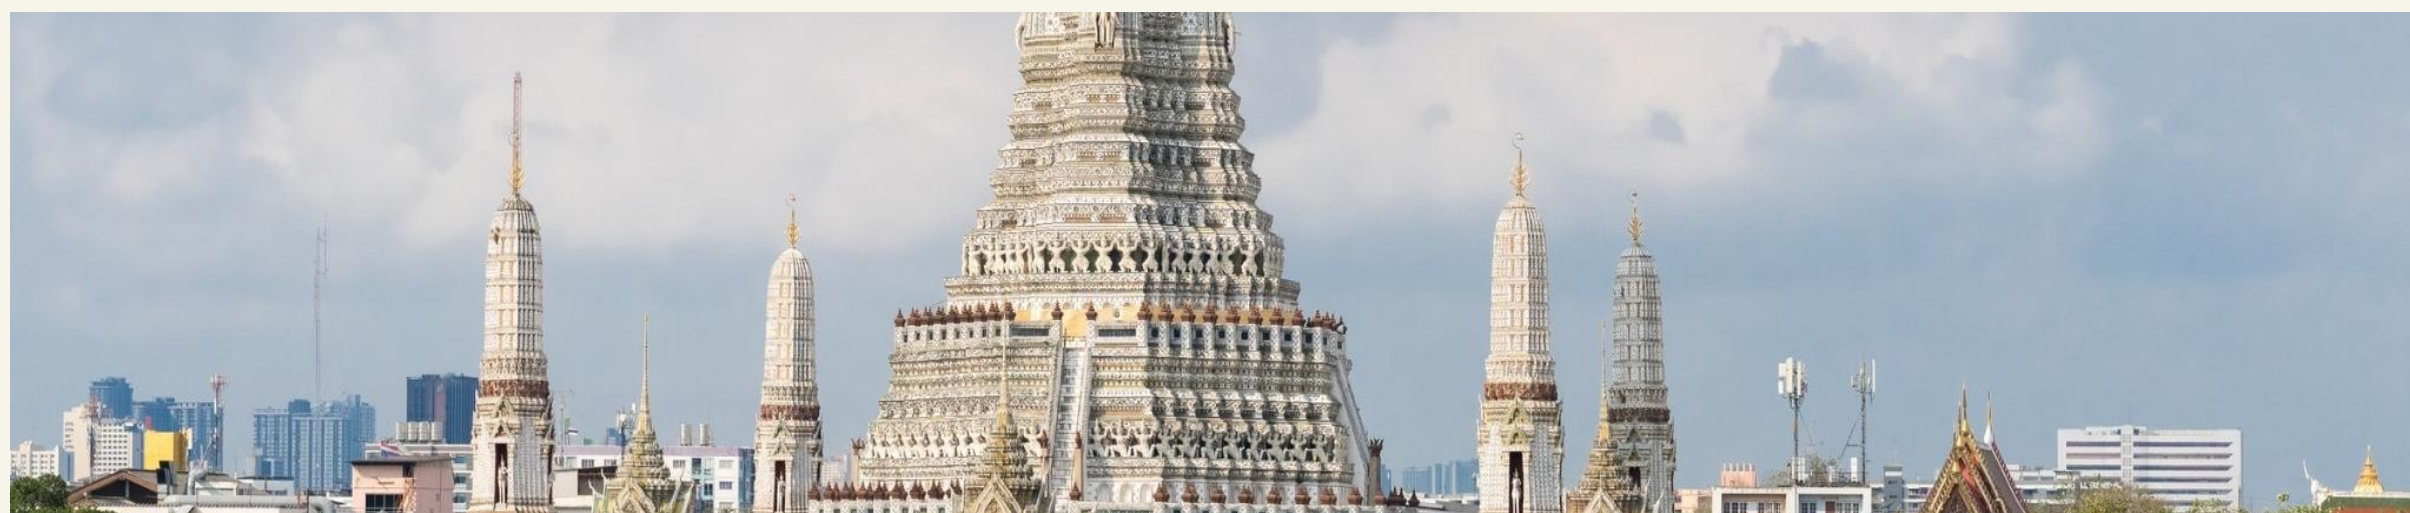

THE RESULT

A vacation designed around the traveler - not a traveler squeezed into a vacation.

Personal planning is not old-fashioned. It is how we make travel feel personal.

BEFORE YOU LEAVE, WE CHECK THE DETAILS

DOCUMENTS

Passports, entry requirements, confirmations, and important travel documents.

TIMING

Flights, transfers, check-in windows, tour times, and realistic connections.

PROTECTION

Travel protection options and the "what if" questions travelers often forget.

EXPECTATIONS

What to pack, what to expect, and what deserves extra attention before you go.

A smooth trip is often the result of dozens of small details being handled BEFORE they become problems.

WHEN TRAVEL DOESN'T GO EXACTLY TO PLAN

That is when having a travel professional matters most.

DELAYS. CHANGES. QUESTIONS.

Travel can change quickly. Weather, airline schedules, hotel issues, missed connections, or unexpected events can turn a simple question into a stressful situation.

YOU HAVE AN ADVOCATE

Instead of starting from scratch, you have someone who already understands your trip and can help you think through the next step.

YOU HAVE CONTEXT

We know what was booked, why it was chosen, and how the pieces connect - valuable information when something changes.

PEACE OF MIND HAS VALUE

Our job is not to promise that travel will never have a hiccup. Our job is to help you prepare well and know you are not navigating every challenge alone.

That support is part of the vacation — even when you hope you never need it.

PERSONAL SERVICE. ALWAYS IN STYLE.

Technology is useful. Relationships are better.

You can book travel with a few clicks.
But a website does not know you,
remember what matters to you, or understand the whole story.

A REAL CONVERSATION

We listen, explain, answer questions, and help you make decisions with confidence.

A REAL RELATIONSHIP

The more we understand your travel style,
the better we can guide future vacations.

Serenity Travel combines modern travel tools with something technology cannot replace: PERSONAL ATTENTION.

THE SERENITY TRAVEL PROMISE

You bring the dream. We bring the expertise.

Together, we create a vacation worth remembering.

What a Travel Advisor Sees That You Don't

The details behind a smooth vacation are rarely accidental.

BEFORE YOU BOOK

We compare timing, routing, room choices, transfer realities and the fine print — not just the headline price.

BEFORE YOU GO

We check documents, deadlines, insurance, arrival plans and the little details that can turn into big problems later.

Your Vacation Deserves More Than a Booking

It deserves planning, perspective and a real person who cares how it turns out.

WHY SERENITY TRAVEL

- 15+ years of experience
- Personal planning
- Destination knowledge
- Real-world guidance
- Help when plans change
- A relationship, not a transaction

THE GOAL IS SIMPLE:

More vacation. Less frustration.

That is what professional travel planning should feel like.

The Difference Is in the Details

Great trips feel effortless because someone handled the hard parts first.

WE LISTEN

Your pace, priorities, comfort level and travel style shape the plan from the beginning.

WE ANTICIPATE

We look for timing conflicts, transfer risks, fine print and small details before they become problems.

WE ADVOCATE

When plans change, you have a real person who knows your trip and can help you move forward.

What We Handle Before You Ever Pack

The best travel planning is often the work you never have to see.

THE QUIET CHECKLIST

- Routing and connection logic
- Hotel location and room fit
- Passport and document timing
- Transfers, arrival flow and mobility
- Travel protection conversations
- Supplier deadlines and restrictions
- Backup thinking when plans shift

THE GOAL

Not to make travel complicated — to make it feel simple. You should be able to enjoy the anticipation of your vacation while Serenity Travel keeps an eye on the details, deadlines and decisions behind it.

Five Questions Worth Asking Before You Book

A smart vacation starts with better questions — not just a lower price.

- 1 Is this the right pace for me?
- 2 What will transfers really look like?
- 3 What is included — and what is not?
- 4 What could make this trip stressful?
- 5 Who will help me if plans change?

WHY THESE QUESTIONS MATTER

A vacation can look perfect in a brochure and still be a poor fit for the traveler. Our job is to help you see the whole picture — pace, logistics, comfort, value and support — before you commit.

Technology Can Search. People Can Understand.

Travel tools are useful. A trusted advisor adds judgment, context and care.

A WEBSITE CAN SHOW OPTIONS

But it does not know what matters most to you, what you dislike, how you like to travel or which trade-offs are worth making.

A TRAVEL ADVISOR CONNECTS THE DOTS

We turn choices into a plan that makes sense for the person taking the trip — not just the destination on the screen.

THE SERENITY TRAVEL APPROACH

We combine modern travel tools with old-fashioned personal service. That means listening first, planning carefully, communicating clearly and staying available when you need us.
