trials and tribulations. Faced with the challenges of the end times, such as social injustice and spiritual apathy, the assurance of Jesus' return allows us to remain steadfast and proactive in our mission to spread the Gospel.

As we await the return of Jesus, it is essential to cultivate a spirit of discernment and to seek to have love, as the Apostle Peter said in 2 Peter 1:5-8. << 5 For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness, to goodness knowledge, 6 and to knowledge self-control, and to self-control perseverance, and to perseverance godliness, 7 and to godliness mutual affection, and to mutual affection love. 8 For if these things are in you, and abound, they will make you neither idle nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For if these things are in you, and abound, they will make you neither idle nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. This implies being vigilant against false teachings that can distort the true message of Christ and dedicating oneself to the pursuit of perfect love. By understanding Jesus as the fulfillment of biblical mysteries, we can better appreciate His role in eschatology and how this influences our understanding of salvation in the last days. This discernment is vital, as it not only strengthens our faith but also equips us to share the truth of Jesus with others.

Ultimately, the hope of Jesus' return is a transformative force that shapes our lives and the communities in which we live. This calls us to action, urging us to be ambassadors of His love and grace in a world that desperately needs it. By embracing this hope, we are reminded that Jesus is not just a historical figure, but the living Savior who invites us to an eternal relationship with Him. This hope is our anchor, providing us with strength and assurance as we navigate thru the complexities of the present while eagerly awaiting the glorious future that awaits us in Christ.

CONCLUSION

The pages of this work have traveled from the silent depths of past eternity — when there was nothing, except the great "Zoe," God alone with His thoughts — to the urgent and final hours of the present age. During this exploration, a supreme truth remains absolute: Jesus Christ is the great secret of God fully revealed. He is not just a figure of historical memory, nor a voiceless subject of theological debate. As it is said in Hebrews 13:8, He is the unchanging Word, the same yesterday, today, and forever. From the old Jewish tabernacle to the road to Emmaus, and even in the structure of modern eschatology, Christ is always the center of the Scriptures. Reading the Word without seeing Him is missing its entire purpose. In these last days, as a highly intellectual world sinks into spiritual blindness and misinformation divides the global body of believers, the eternal Jesus remains the only true anchor for humanity.
