Full Day Guided Tour in Kyoto

More Details —

Today, discover the rich spiritual heritage, culinary culture, and timeless beauty of Kyoto in the comfort of your private vehicle, accompanied by a private guide. With seamless logistics and insider access throughout the day, this curated experience blends iconic sites with exclusive, hands-on moments you'll never forget. A entry allowance of up to ¥2,000 per person is included today, covering temple visits and key site admissions.

Begin with Kyoto's Spiritual Icon – Kiyomizudera Temple

Start your day with a visit to the majestic Kiyomizudera, one of Kyoto's most celebrated temples and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Perched on a hillside overlooking the city, its sweeping wooden veranda offers breathtaking views, especially in spring and autumn. Your guide will bring the temple's centuries-old history to life, sharing legends and rituals while you explore its sacred halls and picturesque walking paths.

Explore Kyoto's Culinary Soul – Nishiki Market

Next, dive into the bustling atmosphere of Nishiki Market, often called "Kyoto's Kitchen." Wander through narrow lanes lined with artisanal food stalls, fresh produce, pickles, sweets, and traditional ingredients unique to Kyoto cuisine. Your guide will help you discover local delicacies, interact with vendors, and share the stories behind the flavors that have defined Kyoto's food culture for generations.

Our Sample Plans - 1 day in Kyoto

DAY 7
WEDNESDAY - JANUARY 7, 2026

Zen Experience: Walking Meditation & Japanese Tea Ceremony

Kenninji Temple is the oldest Zen temple Kyoto, with a history of over 600 years.

At Ryosokuin Temple, which was built within the grounds during the Muromachi period, you can enjoy the beauty of the garden while tasting matcha green tea and handmade sweets and matcha made by artisans.

Escape from the hustle and bustle of travel and enjoy a special moment of peace and tranquility.

The meditation portion of the program is quite large, making it a special experience that is different from a regular tea ceremony.

Optional Evening Experience: Traditional Kaiseki Dinner with Maiko Performance

For a truly unforgettable finale, opt for an exclusive traditional kaiseki dinner, served in a refined Kyoto setting. During your meal, enjoy a private Maiko (apprentice geisha) performance, including dance, conversation, and photo opportunities. This rare cultural encounter offers deep insight into Kyoto's artistic traditions and hospitality heritage—a once-in-a-lifetime experience available only in Japan's former imperial capital.

Please enquire with your travel designer for more details.
