

NATH TAVARES

Bio

Nath Tavares is a globally raised singer-songwriter working at the intersection of pop, Latin urban and musical theater. Influenced by life across Brazil, Mexico, China, the United States, France and Portugal, she brings a genre-blending sound, strong vocals and storytelling-driven performance, and performs in English, Portuguese, Spanish and French. Her background in theater, musical performance and public speaking translates into a dynamic and engaging stage presence.

Her current project blends mariachi, Brazilian funk, rap, pop and salsa into a versatile, performance-ready set suited for both intimate venues and larger stages. Based in Portugal, Nath is actively performing and collaborating with producers to build a distinctive global sound.
