Dear Mathew Burch:

At its June 7, 2005 meeting, the Wisconsin Law Enforcement Standards Board certified you as being qualified to be a law enforcement officer in this state.

Certification powers are granted to the Board under Section 165.85(3)(c) and the issuance of the Board's certificate indicates that you have met the minimum recruitment and training standards identified in Chapters LES 2 and LES 3, Rules of the Wisconsin Law Enforcement Standards Board.

Please accept our sincere congratulations on the successful completion of one of our certified training programs. We expect that your law enforcement career will reflect strict adherence to the highest ethical standards of the profession. We hope that you will not only find the position of law enforcement officer challenging and stimulating but will be motivated to constantly upgrade your professional potential by taking advantage of the multitude of educational and advanced training opportunities available in the police discipline today.

Sincerely,

Dennis Hanson
