Luxury Tents & Habitats

The Essence Collection

The Essence Collection reflects the heart of Savanna Luxury Tents & Habitats — a thoughtful, nature-led expression of wilderness living designed for destinations seeking comfort, simplicity, and authentic connection to place.

Created for developers and owners who value sustainability, practicality, and meaningful guest experiences, this collection blends considered design, efficient engineering, and a light-touch approach that respects the surrounding landscape. Each habitat is shaped to feel grounded and welcoming: elevated where needed, sensitively detailed, and crafted to deliver a reliable, comfortable 3-star experience in remote environments.

With the Essence Collection, we introduce a standard where design meets simplicity, where nature guides the architecture, and where every element is shaped by warmth, resilience, and ease of living.

This is more than an accommodation solution. It is an invitation: to offer guests comfort, connection, and a stay that feels naturally effortless.

SHEPHERD'S TREE LODGE

Crafted as part of the Essence Collection, this lodge embodies quiet warmth and natural protection through its thoughtful design.

Soft textures, earthy tones, and gentle light create a calm, grounded atmosphere, while the architecture draws inspiration from structures that thrive in extreme climates.

Every detail is shaped to offer guests a sense of refuge and restorative comfort. This is a space where nature's resilience meets refined simplicity, inviting guests to unwind and reconnect in a beautifully composed, design-driven retreat.

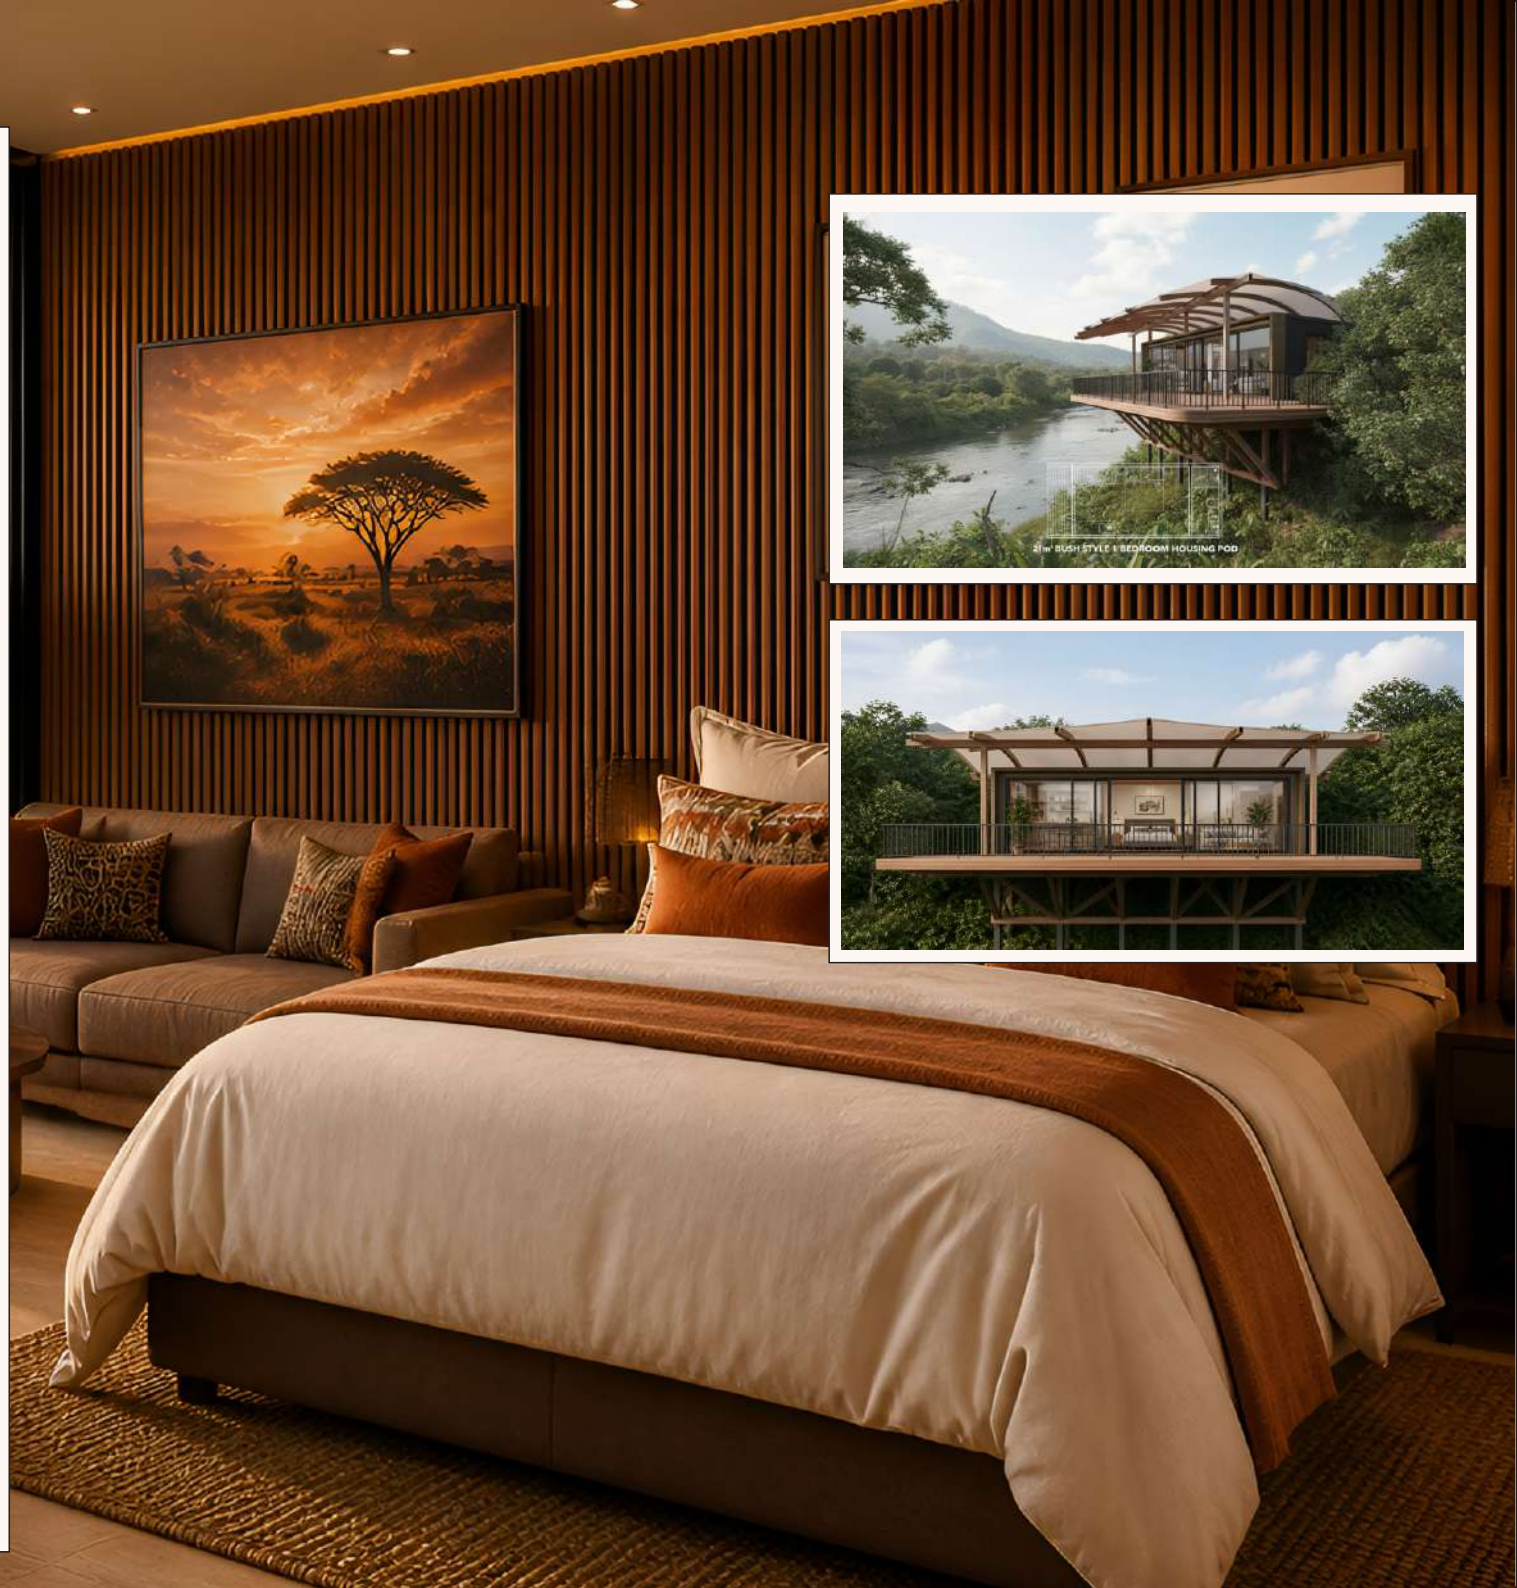

MAHOGANY LODGE

As part of the Essence Collection, this lodge is shaped by warm, grounding design principles that echo the strength and density of natural hardwood architecture.

Rich textures, deep earthy tones, and soft, diffused light create an atmosphere of quiet warmth and effortless comfort.

Every detail is crafted to offer a sense of protection and natural insulation, inviting guests into a space that feels both nurturing and beautifully refined.

This is a retreat where enduring materials and thoughtful simplicity come together to create a calm, restorative escape.

SANDALWOOD LODGE

As part of the Essence Collection, this lodge is shaped around warm, calming design principles that echo the soothing character of natural timber architecture.

Soft textures, gentle earthy tones, and diffused ambient light create an atmosphere that feels grounded and restorative.

Every detail is crafted to evoke warmth and sensory comfort, offering guests a tranquil retreat that blends refined simplicity with nature-inspired serenity.

This is a space designed for unwinding, reconnecting, and experiencing effortless, understated luxury.

CORKWOOD LODGE

As part of the Essence Collection, this lodge is shaped around a design philosophy of natural insulation, warmth, and quiet protection.

Its soft textures, muted earthy palette, and gentle, filtered light create a space that feels cocooned and deeply comforting.

The architecture draws from forms that endure harsh climates, resulting in a retreat that feels grounded, resilient, and beautifully simple.

This is a haven where refined minimalism meets nature-inspired warmth, offering guests a calm, restorative escape.
