

Ex-Paraparaumu player Lyn Brooky (Manor Park) and Richard Lee (Auckland) were clear winners of the Paraparaumu beach Golf Club's 72 hole tournament last Saturday.

Brooky, one of six women invited from the New Zealand representative squad to compete in the 90-strong male field, returned an outstanding card of 296 strokes, playing in tough, windy conditions off the men's tees.

Lee, who rates this his favourite course, turned in an almost flawless four rounds (287) to finish with an 11-shot lead over 16 year old local hero Shaun Richards, who carded 296 in a great performance, considering the field included seven members of the men's national squad. He tied for runner-up with M Pierce and Martin Pettigrew.

Photos: Carolyn Vicars

Pettigrew was later named No 1 player in the 10-man Wellington team to contest the quadrangular Shand Cup competition at the same course this weekend.

On Monday the Paraparaumu club women's team won the final round of the Landsdowne Trophy, competed for among top Wellington clubs.

LYNETTE BROOKY from Manor Park watches her shot during the Waikato women's strokeplay qualifying round yesterday.
PICTURE: Peter Drury

Results from the 36-hole qualifying round of the Waikato women's winter strokeplay golf championships at St Andrews.—

S Farron 154 gross; S Duncan 157, J Oliver 157; L Brooky 158; J Weir 162; C Knight, T Thomas 164; M Morton 165; J Malcolm, R Thompson 167; J Hassall 170; S Signal, K Bruton 172; J Jaffon 173; D Brooks 174; C Hill 178.