

BIO LONG VERSION

Bodaishin is an Argentine DJ and curator rooted in deep, melodic and progressive house. Shaped by over six years of touring, his sound is designed for immersive dancefloors where storytelling, groove and emotional tension evolve over time.

He has performed across key global scenes including Ibiza, Tulum, Amsterdam, Buenos Aires, the United States and Montreal, among others. In 2023, he held a residency at Akasha Ibiza, one of the island's most respected clubs.

His productions have reached over 1.5 million streams on Spotify and have charted in the Beatport Top 10 multiple times, receiving consistent support from artists such as Hernán Cattáneo, Nick Warren and Lee Burridge.

He is also the founder of Circle of Life, a record label and creative platform founded in 2020, focused on curated releases and emotionally driven electronic music. The project has hosted showcases and events in multiple countries, building an international presence within the electronic music scene.

With a sound rooted in depth, groove and melodic progression, Bodaishin continues to build a consistent presence across dancefloors worldwide.

BIO SHORT VERSION

Bodaishin is an Argentine DJ and curator rooted in deep, melodic and progressive house, known for immersive, groove-driven sets shaped by over six years of international touring across key global scenes including Ibiza, Tulum, Amsterdam and Montreal.

His productions have surpassed 1.5 million streams on Spotify, charted in the Beatport Top 10 multiple times, and received support from artists such as Hernán Cattáneo, Nick Warren and Lee Burridge, among others.

Founder of Circle of Life (est. 2020), a record label and creative platform focused on curated releases and emotionally driven electronic music.