To Whom It May Concern,

Tyler Bayley (Bayley Publishing, 15618070 Canada Inc.) has continued to partner with us for the last two years, delivering several youth programs focused on Public Speaking and Leadership skills. Newmarket Youth Centre continues to receive positive feedback from parents and students about its courses. Tyler has consistently conducted himself professionally in and outside of the classroom, and his courses are a reflection of this.

I highly recommend his programs to any students entering high school or looking for that extra bump in communication confidence. His work provides a meaningful foundation for students during this significant academic transition.

Sincerely,

E. Berdusco
