TEREZA MUNDILOVÁ is a Paris-based photographer and director working across fashion, music, and personal projects. Moving between Europe and the US, her work is defined by the intersection of underground and pop culture.

After living in BERLIN and NYC, Tereza developed a practice shaped by both the fashion and music worlds. Early experience at VOGUE GERMANY as a video and photo director led her toward editorial and celebrity portraiture, which remains a central part of her work.

Tereza has created campaigns and editorial work for GUCCI, PRADA BEAUTY, CELINE, CHANEL, ADIDAS ORIGINALS, STRIPLINK, PUMA MOSTRO, and ANN DEMEULEMEESTER, among others. Her editorial work appears regularly in RE-EDITION MAGAZINE, NUMÉRO BERLIN, ZEIT MAGAZINE, 032C, and further publications.

Her portrait subjects include artists and celebrities such as MARINA ABRAMOVIĆ, KIM PETRAS, KIMI ANTONELLI, OLIVIA RODRIGO, THE DARE, and many more. Tereza directs commercial campaigns and music videos, including the COCA-COLA ZERO campaign and the “Headliner” music video for PRETTY SICK.

In 2026, Tereza became a global ambassador for HUGO BOSS, featured on billboards across NYC, LONDON, and BERLIN. In February this year she received the CZECH PHOTOGRAPHER OF THE YEAR AWARD while continuing to develop a series of long-form book projects alongside her editorial and commercial work.
