

JK Expeditions

Iceland Expedition – Looking for a Dragon

Autumn 2026 | October 18–25, 2026

Small group expedition for 4–6 people.

About the Expedition

This is not a typical bus tour. The goal is to experience Iceland's wild nature, waterfalls, black sand beaches, volcanoes, glaciers, puffins, whales and remote places while traveling around the island in a small group.

- FULL ICELAND RING ROAD ROUTE
- WHALE WATCHING IN HUSAVIK
- PUFFINS AND COASTAL CLIFFS
- BLACK SAND BEACHES
- POWERFUL WATERFALLS ACROSS THE COUNTRY
- HOT RIVER EXPERIENCE (45°C WATER WITH COLD ICELANDIC AIR)
- SMALL GROUP ATMOSPHERE
- PROFESSIONAL PHOTO OPPORTUNITIES

Who This Trip Is For

Travelers who prefer adventure over luxury, enjoy hiking, photography, nature, road trips and unforgettable experiences.

Expedition Format

- * Duration: 8 days
- * Group size: 4–6 people
- * Transportation: driven by expedition leader
- * Accommodation throughout the route
- * Flexible itinerary depending on weather and conditions

Pricing

Price: CAD $2,990 per person (group of 4–6 participants).

Smaller groups may have a higher final price.

Included

- * Transportation during the expedition
- * Accommodation
- * Expedition planning and guidance
- * Access to all planned locations
- * Group support throughout the trip

Not Included

- * International flights
- * Personal expenses
- * Meals unless specified
- * Travel insurance

About Your Guide

Founder of JK Expeditions. Experienced traveler with visits to more than 35 countries, snowboard instructor, outdoor enthusiast and adventure photographer.

Reserve Your Spot

Places are limited. Join the waitlist and receive expedition updates and booking information.

Make your dream a reality,,,