

IMIJS Corporate Membership Terms

Version: 1.0

Effective Date: 2 July 2026

Last Updated: 2 July 2026

1. Introduction

These Corporate Membership Terms ("Terms") apply to all organisations that subscribe to or use IMIJS Corporate or Corporate Plus memberships.

They form part of the agreement between IMIJS Ltd ("IMIJS", "we", "our", or "us") and the organisation using the Platform.

These Terms should be read together with the IMIJS Terms & Conditions, Privacy Policy, Event Organiser Terms, Acceptable Use Policy, and all other applicable IMIJS policies.

2. Eligible Organisations

Corporate memberships are intended for legitimate organisations, including but not limited to:

- Businesses
- Charities
- Community organisations
- Sports clubs
- Schools and colleges
- Faith organisations
- Community interest companies
- Public sector organisations
- Other legally recognised organisations

IMIJS may refuse or revoke eligibility where an organisation does not meet our requirements or breaches these Terms.

3. Membership Levels

IMIJS may offer different organisational membership levels, including:

Active

A standard user account intended for individuals.

Corporate

Designed for organisations requiring enhanced visibility, event management tools, organisational profiles, and additional administrative features.

Corporate Plus

Designed for organisations requiring advanced functionality, which may include:

- Multiple administrators.
- Linked sub-accounts.
- Additional permissions management.
- Enhanced organisational controls.
- Advanced reporting.
- Additional future features introduced by IMIJS.

Membership features may change over time.

4. Verification

To protect users and maintain trust, IMIJS may require verification before granting or maintaining Corporate or Corporate Plus status.

Verification may include, where appropriate:

- Organisation name.
- Registered address.
- Contact details.
- Company or charity registration information.
- Identity verification of authorised representatives.
- Proof of authority to act on behalf of the organisation.

Failure to complete verification may result in restrictions, suspension, or removal of membership benefits.

5. Organisation Profiles

Corporate members are responsible for ensuring that all information displayed on their organisation profile is:

- Accurate.
- Up to date.
- Not misleading.
- Lawful.
- Respectful of third-party rights.

Organisations must promptly update material changes to their profile information.

6. Administrators

Corporate accounts may appoint one or more administrators.

The organisation is responsible for:

- Selecting trusted administrators.
- Managing administrator permissions.
- Removing access when individuals no longer require it.
- Monitoring administrator activity.

Actions taken by authorised administrators will be treated as actions of the organisation.

7. Events

Corporate members may create and manage events using the Platform.

All events remain subject to the IMIJS Event Organiser Terms.

The organisation is responsible for:

- Event content.
 - Event management.
 - Communications.
 - Attendee information.
 - Compliance with applicable laws.

8. Subscription Fees

Corporate memberships may require payment.

Where fees apply:

- Prices will be displayed before purchase.
- Payments must be made using approved payment methods.
- Subscriptions may renew automatically unless cancelled before the renewal date, where automatic renewal is offered.
- Applicable taxes may be added where required by law.

Failure to pay subscription fees may result in suspension or termination of membership benefits.

9. Upgrades and Downgrades

Organisations may upgrade or downgrade their membership where those options are offered by IMIJS.

Changes to features or pricing will apply from the date specified during the upgrade or downgrade process.

10. Acceptable Use

Corporate members must use the Platform responsibly.

They must not:

- Misrepresent their organisation.
- Mislead users.
- Operate fraudulent activities.
- Sell unlawful goods or services.
- Abuse messaging features.
- Use the Platform to send spam.
- Infringe intellectual property rights.
- Circumvent Platform security.

All Corporate members remain subject to the IMIJS Acceptable Use Policy.

11. Intellectual Property

Each organisation retains ownership of the content it uploads.

By uploading content to the Platform, the organisation grants IMIJS a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free licence to host, store, process, display, and transmit that content solely for the purpose of operating, maintaining, securing, improving, and providing the Platform.

Organisations confirm that they have the necessary rights and permissions to upload all content.

12. Data Protection

Corporate members are responsible for complying with applicable data protection laws when using IMIJS.

Where organisations collect or process attendee information through the Platform, they remain responsible for meeting their own legal obligations as data controllers where applicable.

IMIJS processes personal data in accordance with its Privacy Policy and Data Protection & UK GDPR Policy.

13. Suspension and Termination

IMIJS may suspend or terminate Corporate memberships where:

- Subscription fees remain unpaid.
- Verification requirements are not met.
- These Terms are breached.
- Fraud is suspected.
- Continued access presents a security or legal risk.
- Required information is knowingly false or misleading.

Suspension may affect access to organisational features while preserving data where required by law or for legitimate business purposes.

14. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, IMIJS Ltd shall not be liable for:

- Loss of business opportunities.
- Loss of profits.
- Event-related disputes.
- Organisational decisions made using the Platform.
- Service interruptions beyond IMIJS's reasonable control.
- Actions or omissions of third-party service providers.

Nothing in these Terms excludes liability that cannot legally be excluded.

15. Changes to Membership

IMIJS may:

- Introduce new membership levels.
- Modify existing features.
- Change subscription pricing.
- Add or remove functionality.
- Introduce new eligibility requirements.

Material changes affecting paid memberships will be communicated in advance where reasonably practicable.

16. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by the laws of England and Wales.

Any dispute arising from these Terms shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales, unless applicable consumer protection laws provide otherwise.

17. Contact

Questions regarding these Corporate Membership Terms should be directed to IMIJS using the contact details published within the Platform or on the official IMIJS website.
