

IMIJS Community Guidelines

Version: 1.0

Effective Date: 2 July 2026

Last Updated: 2 July 2026

Welcome to IMIJS

IMIJS exists to help people organise, connect, collaborate, and build stronger communities.

Whether you're planning a family gathering, running a sports club, organising a charity event, managing a school activity, supporting a mosque, or coordinating a business event, we want IMIJS to be a welcoming, respectful, and safe place for everyone.

These Community Guidelines explain the standards we expect from everyone who uses IMIJS.

1. Treat Everyone with Respect

Everyone deserves to feel welcome.

Please:

- Be polite and considerate.
- Respect different opinions.
- Assume good intentions where possible.
- Communicate professionally.
- Help create a positive atmosphere.

Disagreements are natural, but personal attacks are not.

2. Keep Conversations Relevant

Event chats should stay focused on the event.

Avoid:

- Off-topic conversations.
- Spam.
- Repeated advertising.
- Unwanted promotional messages.
- Flooding chats with unnecessary content.

Keeping discussions relevant helps everyone stay informed.

3. Think Before You Post

Before sharing something, ask yourself:

- Is it true?
- Is it helpful?
- Is it respectful?
- Do I have permission to share it?

Once content is shared, it may be seen by other authorised members of your event or organisation.

4. Respect Privacy

Only share information you have permission to share.

Do not post:

- Private addresses.
- Personal phone numbers without consent.
- Financial information.
- Confidential documents.
- Private conversations belonging to others.

Protecting privacy protects everyone.

5. Share Appropriate Content

You are welcome to share:

- Event updates.
- Photos.
- Videos.
- Documents.
- Checklists.
- Useful resources.

Please ensure your content is lawful, respectful, and appropriate for your audience.

6. No Bullying or Harassment

We do not tolerate:

- Bullying.

- Harassment.
- Threats.
- Intimidation.
- Hate speech.
- Discrimination.
- Personal abuse.
- Deliberate humiliation of others.

Everyone should feel safe participating in IMIJS.

7. No Fraud or Deception

Be honest.

Do not:

- Pretend to be someone else.
- Mislead other users.
- Create fake organisations.
- Sell fake tickets.
- Misrepresent events.
- Attempt scams.

Trust is one of IMIJS's core values.

8. Respect Event Organisers

Event organisers give their time to create experiences for others.

Please:

- Follow event instructions.
- Respect event rules.
- Arrive prepared.
- Communicate respectfully.
- Notify organisers if your plans change where appropriate.

Likewise, organisers should treat attendees fairly and respectfully.

9. Respect Volunteers

Many organisations using IMIJS rely on volunteers.

Please remember they often give their time freely.

Treat volunteers with the same respect you would expect yourself.

10. Respect Intellectual Property

Only upload content that you have the right to use.

Do not copy or distribute material belonging to others without permission.

If you are unsure, seek permission before sharing.

11. Help Keep IMIJS Safe

If you see behaviour that concerns you:

- Report it using the reporting tools provided.
- Contact the event organiser where appropriate.
- Avoid escalating conflicts publicly.

Reporting helps us maintain a safe community.

12. Consequences of Breaking These Guidelines

Most issues can be resolved through education and communication.

However, serious or repeated breaches may result in:

- Removal of content.
 - Warnings.
 - Temporary restrictions.
 - Suspension of accounts.
 - Permanent removal from IMIJS.
 - Reports to law enforcement where required by law.

13. Building Positive Communities

The best communities are built by people who:

- Welcome newcomers.
- Offer help.
- Encourage participation.
- Respect differences.
- Celebrate success.

- Solve problems constructively.

Every user plays a part in creating the culture of IMIJS.

14. Changes to These Guidelines

These Community Guidelines may be updated from time to time to reflect changes to the Platform, applicable laws, or community needs.

The latest version will always be available through the IMIJS Platform and on the official website.

15. Thank You

Thank you for helping make IMIJS a trusted platform for families, organisations, businesses, schools, charities, sports clubs, faith groups, and communities.

Together, we can build stronger connections and better organised communities.
