APNIARCA

Copy of the survey of activity during January 1947 of the Tracing Office of the World Jewish Congress in Bucharest, Rumania.

(5) THE TRACING OFFICE has been displaying an ever growing activity. There has been introduced a card-index, special files to pursue enquiries, as well as a fichier. All that, to facilitate and accelerate working and have it in good order. A total of 279 letters of enquiries were received during January from inland and abroad; the figure for February is showing 412 incoming letters.

Our Tracing Office has at the same time been continuing the work of setting into alphabetical order the names of 22,000 repatriates from the Soviet Union.

During January there were sent to the London Tracing Office (32)
Tracing lists of repatriates and deportees.

See enclosure

I. Gerber	- Deportation is being made on Saturday.
E. Ellenberg	- Slaves of the Twentieth Century.
Dubnow	- History of Jews (Rumanian version)
Laiwandman	- Book of Jewish Feasts.
I. Steinberg.	- Fables (Rumanian version)

There are particularly two volumes we want to mention, which our Section has printed:

"On Pseudonyms" by I. Ludo, a vigorous booklet against any assimilation, and "The Grave is in the Orchard" by Arnold Dagani, a book of high literary and propagandistic value, a diary of a deportee to the extermination Camp in the Ukraine, across Transnistria. It is the Rumanian version of "Let Me Live", whose English MS (in original) is with Headquarters in New York.
