Explore the world on your terms with our service

The reason we stand head and shoulders above other charter companies is that we put our customers first, and provide so much more than just private jet flights. At Aircraft Charter, we have a reputation for our exceptional attention to detail, so that everything is taken care of and you can enjoy a hassle-free experience from the moment you speak to us, whether you're booking an air taxi, helicopter, a group charter, commercial aircraft or require cargo and logistics services.

Why rent a private aircraft?

For business

You can rent a helicopter, an air taxi or a private jet to take you and your team anywhere you need to fly. If you need to make that last minute business trip to New York, that urgent lunch in Paris, we can take care of all the details. We can even ensure on-board boardroom facilities, Wi-Fi and telephones if you need to conduct business in the air.

We can also fly cargo and packages to any destination, from important equipment for a concert, to an engine part for a racing car, big or small, we have a solution that's right for you.

For pleasure

Charter a helicopter, air taxi or a private jet to get you to your sports or music venue or holiday destination. Whether you are traveling alone, with family or with larger groups we can help you find the solution that best suits your needs. Traveling with pets? No problem we can even provide everything needed for a comfortable flight.

For a seamless travel experience

One of the reasons many of our clients fly with us time and time again is that we provide a truly seamless service tailored to your schedule.

We can arrange flights within as little as two hours' notice. Passengers enjoy swift check-ins with no queues, plus we can arrange car hire or chauffeur service transfers should this be required.

And for those extra touches

We're all about those added extras that make your experience complete, such as custom branding on your aircraft, in-flight catering, discreet personal security, helicopter transfers and so much more. Just ask, and we'll make all the arrangements.

Why choose Aircraft Charter

Our team of experts

Our multilingual team have a meticulous knowledge of the aircraft, airports and, of course, the aircraft charter market, and have state-of-the-art resources at hand to provide you with accurate advice to meet your requirements. We believe we have some of the most highly trained account managers in the world, and that's why you can rely on us to deliver the ultimate travel solutions.

A bespoke, flexible service

No matter what your requirements we can arrange it all. Your dedicated personal account manager is available 24 hours a day, wherever you are in the world, and can arrange your flights within two hours. We can advise you which aircraft best suit your requirements, offering competitive pricing on helicopters, air taxis, private jets and group commercial aircraft rentals.

Convenient hassle-free travel

We have access to hundreds of aircraft, from helicopters, air taxis, private jets, medevac aircraft and commercial airliners. Choose the dates and times to suit you. We can tailor your travel arrangement to fit your schedule – it's what we do best, and we do it quickly.

On board experience

Depending on the aircraft you choose to rent we can in many instances provide a complimentary bar with soft drinks, wines and spirits. A choice of catering is often available, from snacks, canapés to standard and first class catering.

Our service and standards

Helicopter Rental

Why not hire a helicopter for a business meeting, to go to the races, to attend a corporate event or a wedding, or even while on vacation?

We offer a wide range of modern helicopters which are ideal for short flights, to reach remote destinations and for sightseeing. With offices all over the globe we can arrange your flight quickly, and advise on the feasibility and availability of a private helicopter landing in your destination.

We also arrange helicopter taxi transfers after a commercial or private flight to and from most major airports worldwide.

So whether you're flying on a private jet or taking a commercial flight, we can pick you up and fly you to your final destination.

Air Taxi Service

When staying on the ground isn't fast enough, why not choose an air taxi? Ideal for short trips, air taxis are able to get you into private airfields nearer to your end destination. So whether you have a requirement to attend multiple destinations in a day with minimal turnaround time, or just getting from A to B, air taxis are the perfect choice.

When you need to get somewhere quickly without airport and check-in delays, we can select the best aircraft for you within two-hours notice, from turboprops, light jets to helicopters.

Crew Movement

We can arrange aircraft of all sizes, including helicopters, to transport employees to remote destinations and inaccessible locations. We have a proven track record looking after oil & gas workers, maritime crews, mining engineers, cruise line workers, scientists, seasonal agricultural workers, and more. Once on land, we can also arrange ground transfers to their final destination.

Private Jet Rental

We fly some of the world's top business people, executives and teams by private business jet, this is where we truly shine, offering a bespoke service for all your professional needs.

We ensure a flawless travel experience whether you require a multi-sector trip, a last-minute business meeting or frequent corporate charter trips. We can guarantee that no matter how short notice, we can get you where you need to be as our team is on hand 24 hours a day to handle all the arrangements.

Executive Airlines

Executive airliners are the crème de la crème of the Aircraft Charter world, and many come equipped with business and conference centers, lounge areas and private suites ideal for conducting business in the air.

Commercial Jet Rental

Offering the lavishness of a full-sized airliner with the privacy of a private charter. If you are traveling in a group of more than 16 people, hiring a commercial jet airliner offers the ultimate in comfort and superior facilities, which eclipse first class travel on commercial airlines.

We arrange jet airliners for product launches, corporate events, sports clubs, musical productions, conferences and hospitality trips.

They prove a great success with our clients because we offer a hassle-free service with dedicated check-in desks, direct routes, and departures tailored to your schedule.

Chartering a private airliner is the perfect way for your group to travel together, and you'll be surprised at the cost per head.

Empty Leg Flights

Our Aircraft Charter service's empty leg flights, unlocking luxurious travel for savvy passengers. Private jet empty leg flights take advantage of the fact that aircraft sometimes need to fly to a pick-up location or return to base without passengers.

If you are flexible with your flight dates, or if your itinerary aligns with one of these empty leg flights, this is an excellent and cost-effective way to travel.

With our innovative system optimizing a worldwide network of private jet aircraft, our team has access to a large variety of the most competitive empty legs on the market. We take care of all the details and ensure you receive the best prices.

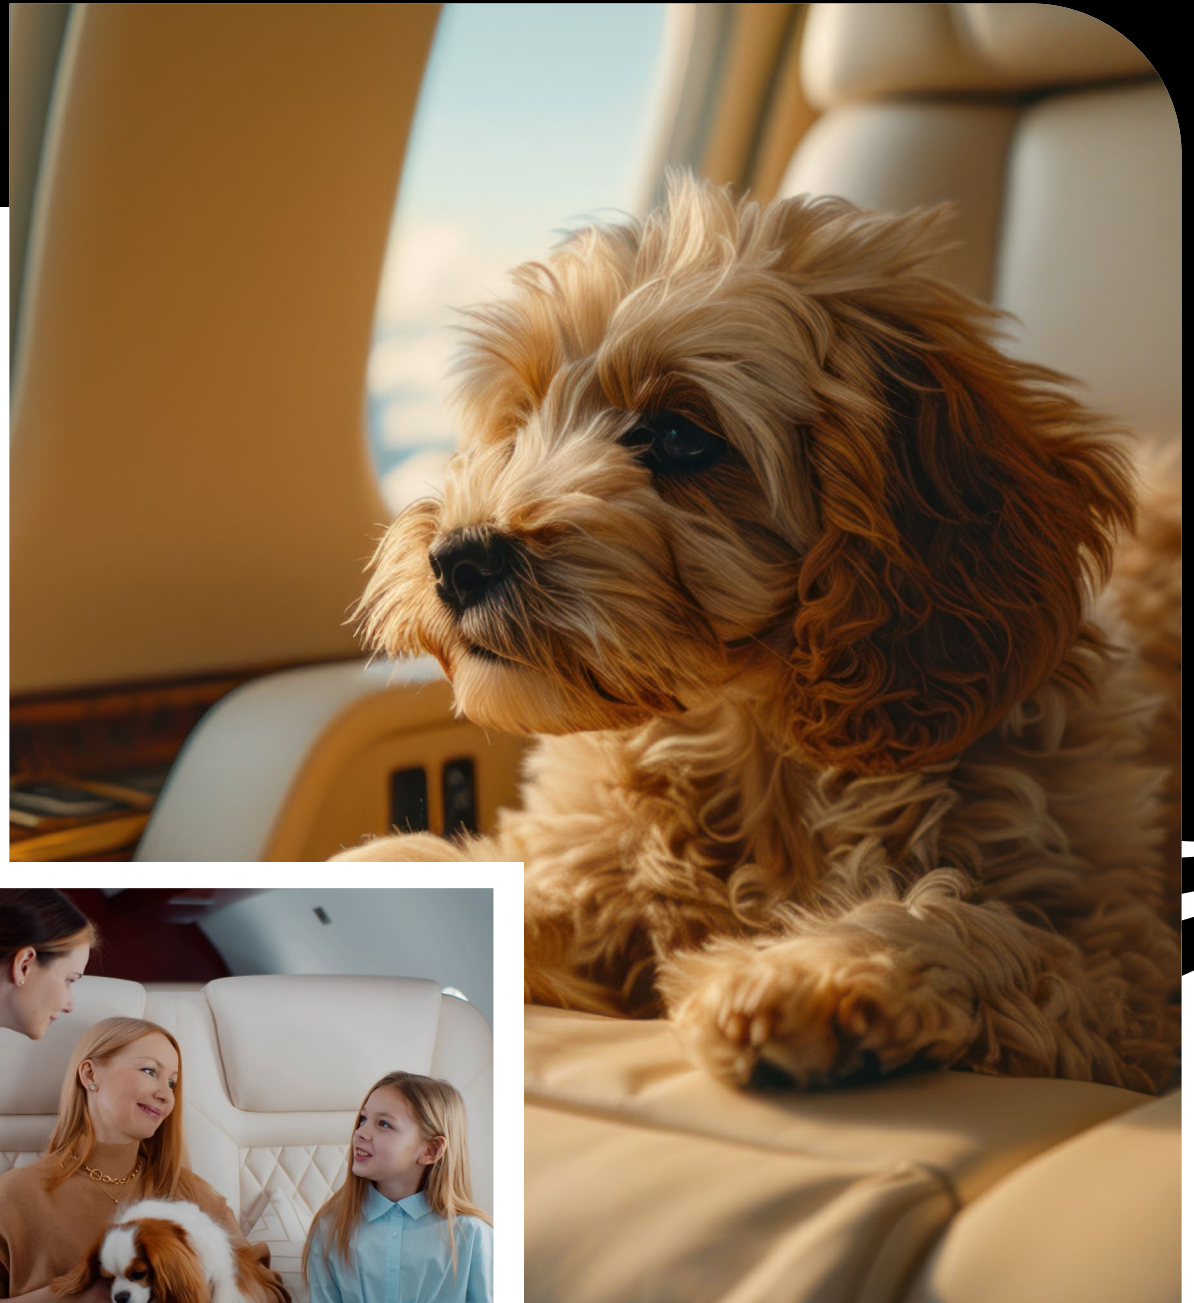

Pet-friendly Air Travel

Thanks to our unique aircraft charter services, animal lovers needn't worry about leaving their friends at home. They can take their beloved pets on board any of our aircraft.

Moreover, we have over 10 years of experience looking after four-legged travelers. In that time, our pet-friendly jet rentals have transported cats, dogs, birds, and even reptiles. We always look forward to the next furry, winged or scaled visitors.

We know flights can be traumatic experiences, but unlike a commercial flight, pet-friendly jet charters allow your best friends to travel with you in the aircraft cabin rather than in the hold.

There is no limit on how many pets are traveling with you. We can also advise on pet passports, valid vaccinations and necessary documents and certificates for complete piece of mind.

Air Cargo and Logistics

Transporting goods privately can be complex, however, we can simplify this process and ensure a fast, reliable air freight service. Whatever your cargo or freight, our team will provide comprehensive logistical support and assist you through the entire process.

You can depend on us to safely and securely transport your high valued, heavy or outsize equipment, hazardous or urgent freight on time, every time.

We can cater to all your needs whether you are transporting from remote airfields, at unusual times, over huge distances, or even handling materials not supported through commercial aircraft carriers. We can even transport a single package using smaller aircraft if required. Aircraft Charter can locate you a timely and effective cargo solution bespoke to you.

Medevac Air Services

An air medical evacuation (also known as medevac or medivac) is a method of private air transportation for patients who are too ill or injured to endure the rigors of commercial flights.

We offer international medevac air ambulance and repatriation services for patients across the world often in regions difficult to access, and we operate a rapid response service to arrange medevac flights and crew at a moment's notice; 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to assist you immediately.

Medical aircraft are equipped with the latest medical equipment including an intensive care unit, and are manned by a medical flight crew including a doctor and/or a nurse. The medical team is able to care for patients with all manner of needs from trauma, burns, respiratory problems, multiple organ failure, and other life-threatening critical conditions.
