More than caterers — we create the moments people remember.

A word from our founder

Landuleni Shihwandu

FOUNDER & MANAGING MEMBER

When I founded Evesh in 2015, it began with a simple belief — that food, prepared with care and served with heart, brings people together.

As a proudly Namibian, 100% black-owned company based in Windhoek, we have grown by staying close to what matters most: our clients, our craft, and the quality of every plate that leaves our kitchen.

I remain hands-on in the business to this day, because I genuinely love what I do. Whether we are catering an intimate dinner or a celebration of two thousand guests, our promise never changes — exceptional food, faultless service, and an experience worth remembering.

Thank you for considering us. We would be honoured to bring your next occasion to life.

A proudly Namibian catering house

Evesh Events and Catering is a proudly Namibian, 100% black-owned catering company based in Windhoek, founded in 2015 by Landuleni Shihwandu — who chooses to stay hands-on in the business out of a genuine love of food.

Though Windhoek is our home, we cater for clients across Namibia and the surrounding regions. Our aim is to enhance every customer's experience, matching each occasion with exactly the right offering. We are dedicated to exceeding expectations through consistently high-quality food and service.

Our work is organised into two dedicated divisions, working seamlessly together on every event.

DIVISION ONE

Catering Services

Menus crafted from the freshest seasonal ingredients, prepared and served for gatherings of 50 to 2,000 guests.

DIVISION TWO

Events Planning

End-to-end coordination — venue, décor, staffing and logistics — so every detail is handled with care.
