What It Is

Outside of BFP's structured programs, Ongoing Support keeps people connected through letters, mentorship, and practical assistance. It exists for whatever falls outside a formal curriculum, sustaining connection and care for people currently inside and those who have come home.

Why It Matters

Not every need fits into a scheduled program. Ongoing Support is the relationship layer underneath everything else BFP does, keeping people from falling through the cracks between structured offerings.

How You Can Partner

Facilities: help connect community members to BFP's letter-writing and mentorship network.

Volunteers: become a pen pal or mentor to someone currently incarcerated or newly home.

Donors: support the practical assistance side of this program, direct aid that fills urgent gaps.

Contact us to join the network of care as a volunteer or partner.

May all beings be free.
