

Research Use Only Policy

AIR AMINO LLC

Effective Date: [DATE]

Research Use Only

Products identified by Air Amino LLC ("Air Amino," "we," "us," or "our") as Research Use Only ("RUO") are offered solely for legitimate laboratory, analytical, educational, or scientific research purposes.

Unless expressly stated otherwise for a particular product, RUO products are not intended for human or veterinary use, consumption, administration, diagnosis, treatment, prevention, or cure of any disease or medical condition.

Qualified Purchasers

By purchasing an RUO product from Air Amino, the purchaser represents that:

- The product is being acquired for a legitimate research purpose.
- The purchaser has the knowledge, facilities, training, and authorization appropriate for the intended research activity.
- The product will not be administered to or consumed by humans or animals.
- The product will not be resold or otherwise supplied for human or veterinary use.
- The purchaser will comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations.

Intended Use

Air Amino does not authorize the use of RUO products as drugs, foods, dietary supplements, cosmetics, medical devices, or veterinary products.

Information appearing on our website is provided for product identification and legitimate research purposes and is not medical advice or a recommendation regarding human or veterinary use.

Purchaser Verification

Air Amino may request information reasonably necessary to verify the legitimacy of a purchaser or proposed research use.

We reserve the right to decline, cancel, limit, or refund an order when we cannot reasonably verify that the transaction is consistent with our Research Use Only requirements or applicable law.

Prohibited Purchases

Do not purchase an RUO product from Air Amino if you intend to:

- Consume or administer the product personally;
- Administer the product to another person or animal;
- Use the product to diagnose, treat, cure, mitigate, or prevent a disease or medical condition;
- Resell the product for any prohibited purpose; or
- Use the product in violation of applicable law.

Product Information

Purchasers are responsible for evaluating appropriate handling, storage, laboratory procedures, protective equipment, disposal methods, and other research requirements applicable to their activities.

Compliance

Air Amino reserves the right to restrict sales, request additional documentation, refuse transactions, or terminate customer access when reasonably necessary for legal, regulatory, safety, payment-processing, or compliance purposes.
