Evening Herald 1891-1979, 19.08.1964, page 3

DROWNED IN GERMANY

Fergal Kelly (10), youngest son of the late Mr. John Kelly, formerly of Derrynoose, Keady, Co. Armagh, and who had been at school at La St. Union Convent, Kilashee. Co. Kildare, for the past five years, was drowned at Dulkan, Germany, where he had been holidaying with his brother. Peter.

He was a nephew of Very Rev. F. W. Terry, P.P., Beragh, Co. Tyrone. He had left the Co. Kildare school last June. Three of his brothers had also been educated there.

His mother flew to Germany from Belfast yesterday to make arrangements for the funeral.