Dear Vany

Junior Reporter Vanessa “Vany” Masterson answers her latest set of questions from Palisadian-Post readers. If you have a question you would like to send to Vany, email it to mypost@palipost.com.

Dear Vany,

Because we’re not allowed at school, I’m really missing my friends. What are some ways we can keep in touch?

I’m missing a lot of my friends too, so I have a few recommendations. Zoom is great for kids with no phone! In my friend group, there are two people that don’t have phones, but they can get Zoom on their computers and we can all talk. If you don’t have a phone to text or FaceTime with, use Zoom.

That brings me to my next way: FACETIME! You can text and FaceTime your friends on your or your parents’ phone anytime. I sometimes stay on FaceTime for hours until one of us has to go to bed.

I’m so sorry that you’re missing your friends, and I hope this helps.

Thanks for writing! Stay safe!

— Vany

Dear Vany,

I am running out of things to watch on TV! What are some of your recommendations?

This is definitely my favorite question! I know a lot of TV shows that my family has been watching together, so here I give you, Vany’s 5 best TV picks!

- “High School Musical the Musical the Series” on Disney+
- “Seinfeld” on Hulu
- “Dance Moms” (my favorite show ever) on Lifetime
- “Sugar Rush” on Netflix
- “Love is Blind” on Netflix

Thanks for writing! Stay safe!
