Introducing: Dear Vany!

By VANESSA MASTERSON
Junior Reporter

Hello Pali Post! I am Vanessa "Vany" Masterson and I am starting a kid's advice column.

This is something I have wanted to do for a long time because I love to help my friends when they are in fights and feel confused about what to do in any situation.

Last year I was a peacemaker at my school and I helped many people who were sad.

Feel free to send questions and I will work hard to give the best advice possible!

Vanessa is a Junior Reporter for the Palisadian-Post. Her work includes running a pet Halloween costume contest and, most recently, her top lists for things in 2018. Submit questions for Dear Vany to mypost@pali-post.com. Written in questions will also be accepted: 881 Alma Real Drive, Suite 213, Pacific Palisades CA 90272.
