

Use this worksheet to reflect on and write your personal legacy statement. This is not about your business achievements — it's about what truly matters to you, and what you want to be remembered for.

1. Reflect on Your Values

What are the core values that have guided your life and business decisions?

-
-
-

2. Identify the Impact You Want to Leave

Think about the people, principles, and communities you care about. What kind of impact do you want to have on them?

-
-
-

3. Think About How You Want to Be Remembered

What would you want people to say about you one year after you're gone from the business? What legacy do you want to leave in your personal and professional life?

-
-
-

4. Draft Your Legacy Statement

Write a short paragraph (3–5 sentences) that sums up your personal legacy — the contribution you've made, the values you've lived, and the example you've set.

Your Draft:

5. Share and Refine

Who can you share this with to get feedback and clarity? Consider sharing with a mentor, family member, or trusted peer to help you refine it.

This is your legacy. Let it guide your next chapter.